The second edition of the ETC Artist Residency Programme offers scholarships during the 2019/2020 season at ETC Member Theatres. The selected participants will join the creative team of a theatre production process as assistant or second assistant directors. Moreover, the ETC Artist Residency Programme is also a chance for your staff members to gain insights into the independent European theatre scene, supporting international cooperation.

Hosting Theatres Need to:

- Offer a scholarship placement for the period of a theatre production process (up to 6 weeks) as assistant or second assistant director in the 2019/2020 season (January 2020 to June 2020)
- Involve the scholar actively in the creative team and the production process
- Appoint a mentor within your theatre for the scholar
- Provide and cover accident and liability insurance for the scholar
- Organise and provide accommodation

ETC Supports by:

- Organising the open call for applications and pre-selecting the applications
- Taking care of the necessary administrative procedures and the grant management
- Contributing with financial support of up to 100 EUR/week to the scholar's accommodation (max. 600 EUR/hosting theatre)
- Contributing with financial support to the local expenses and the travel costs of the scholar
- Inviting scholars to the ETC International Theatre Conference in Graz/Austria from 11-14 June 2020 - a platform to present themselves and their work to European theatre professionals
